

Libertarian Party of Indiana

District Six Report (June–July 2025)

Executive Summary

District Six remains steady at 54 members across seven counties. Hancock, Henry, and Johnson report routine outreach with no new sign-ups. Preparations for Riley Days in October are underway; one 10×10 booth is fully funded and paid, and Hancock County needs an additional $250 to secure a second space.

Membership Overview

- Total membership: 54 (no change since May 2025)
 - Active outreach counties: Hancock, Henry, Johnson
 - Counties lacking recent activity: Rush, Bartholomew, Wayne, Shelby
-

County Updates

Hancock County

- Monthly coordination call held in July.
- Riley Days Festival (October 10–12): one booth (10×10) secured and paid ($360); seeking $250 more for second booth space.
- District does not maintain its own bank account—payments will be routed through Hancock County’s affiliate.

Henry County

- Continued email check-ins; no new member inquiries.
- Planning a summer meet-and-greet; date to be confirmed once volunteers commit.

Johnson County

- Two members attended the July regional advocacy workshop.
- Planning a late-August door-knocking initiative; volunteer sign-ups requested.

Rush, Bartholomew, Wayne, Shelby Counties

- No reported activity this period.
-

Upcoming Events

- Riley Days Festival (Hancock County): October 10–12
 - Booth cost: $360 each
 - One booth paid; $250 still needed for the second booth
 - Payment will be processed through Hancock County's account
 - District outreach blitz: late August/early September
 - Target: Rush, Bartholomew, Wayne, Shelby
 - Activities: flyer drops, social-media ads, volunteer recruitment
-

Requests & Recommendations

1. Raise $250 to finalize the second Riley Days booth purchase through Hancock County.
 2. Organize a virtual “Meet Your Neighbor” in August to energize all counties simultaneously.
-

Next Steps

1. Drive a targeted donation campaign for the second booth—highlight donor recognition on social media.
2. Liaison appointments and outreach plans due by August 5.
3. Launch district-wide digital ads in late August focusing on under-engaged counties.
4. Prepare a mid-September membership and fundraising update for the September State Central Committee meeting.

Thank you for your support as we build momentum across District Six. We look forward to exceeding our goals this fall!

In Liberty,

Luke J Lomax

District 6 Representative - LPIN